This paper has a larger Daily, Tri-Weekly and Weekly circulation than any other in Minnesota, and therefore presents inducements to advertisers which they will not find elsewhere.

SAINT PAUL, TUESDAY, OCT. 20.

UNION MEETINGS.

UNION MEETINGS are hereby announced, which will be addressed by the following persons:

SENATOR WILKINSON AND COL. MILLER.
Anti-Slavery Society, October 20.
Shakopee, October 21.
St. Paul, October 22.
St. Peter, October 23.
Mankato, October 24.
Newspapers friendly to the cause are requested to copy the foregoing notices; and those interested in the cause, residing in the respective localities, are desired to make all necessary arrangements for the meetings.

THE SUPERIOR AND MISSISSIPPI RAILROAD.

Whoever examines the map of Minnesota and traces the lines of our projected railroads cannot fail to notice that Saint Paul is by no means so well accommodated with them as many places heretofore of less importance. Rochester, St. Peter, Shakopee, Mendota, Minneapolis and St. Anthony are each at the center of intersecting or diverging lines; while Saint Paul has but one line, and that one leading north to an Eastern market over a thickly settled part of the interior. We have been satisfied with our river navigation, but this season of low water has pretty thoroughly convinced the more provident and thoughtful of our citizens that we may as well begin to look after our interests on the land.

Cannot we avoid being left at one side of the main channels of trade and travel? We may easily build the short line which will connect us with the Minneapolis and Cedar Valley railroad at Mendota, but how can we compel their trains to leave their main line and go twice as far by way of St. Paul to St. Anthony where the western and northern branches of the St. Paul and Pacific railroad unite?

It is well understood and admitted that the proper outlet for the produce of Minnesota is not through Wisconsin to Lake Michigan, but through our own State to our own harbor on Lake Superior. St. Paul may be connected with the great Lakes by a direct line one hundred and forty miles long. By the shortest possible line to Winona we are three hundred and twenty miles from Milwaukee, while by Mendota and the Cedar Valley line three hundred and seventy-five miles from that port—our nearest entrepot on Lake Michigan.

Other points will soon be in competition with us for a railroad to Lake Superior. A recent article in the Pioneer urges on us the importance of connecting ourselves with Hudson, in order to intersect the projected St. Croix and Lake Superior Railroad. The length of this line as now located from Hudson to Superior is one hundred and forty-five miles; to Bayfield one hundred and sixty-nine miles. As to the first of these lines, why should we build twenty-five or thirty miles of railroad, including a bridge across the St. Croix to give five miles farther from our destination than where we started—? Why should we encourage a route passing through and terminating in another State, and by which all the trade of Minnesota which can get to the river below will be drawn away from St. Paul. Our St. Paul and Pacific Railroad Company have a plan to build a branch to Lake Superior, joining their railroad above St. Anthony, providing a route which will be at least ten miles longer than a direct one to St. Paul, and whereby the business, instead of passing through St. Paul on its way southward will cross the river at St. Anthony.

Instead of spending money and influence to build branches to other lines running by us on one side or the other, is it not better to use every effort for the promotion and accomplishment of an object which will establish us in our accustomed position as the center of the trade and travel of the Upper Mississippi valley?

A few figures will show that the proposed direct line is the best, not only for St. Paul, but for the whole State. Three counties in the southeastern part of the State, with a population of twenty-nine thousand, are nearer Milwaukee than Lake Superior. All people inhabiting that portion of the State lying between the Mississippi, below St. Paul and the Minnesota including the Minnesota valley, can get to St. Paul by railroad or by water more easily than to any point on the St. Paul & Pacific Railroad above St. Anthony. This district contains a population of one hundred and ten thousand, while the Mississippi valley above St. Anthony, including all Hennepin county, contains but twenty-six thousand people whose good or bad luck it is to be nearer St. Anthony than St. Paul. Except a little of Washington county bordering the St. Croix, no part of the State is as near to Hudson as to St. Paul, the distance from Hudson to Prescott by the railroad line being twenty-four miles, while from St. Paul to Hastings by a recent survey is but nineteen miles, and to Prescott only two miles more.

Let us go to work on our Grand Trunk Line to Lake Superior. We shall be working for the interest of, and may expect aid from the whole State, and all the other railroads will seek to unite with us.

Surely, if we neglect it, we shall be off the main lines of railroad communication and all our advantages of river navigation will not retain for us the pre-eminence we have till now enjoyed.

THE DRAFT POSTPONED.

Gov. Swift started for Washington Sunday afternoon, with a view of securing a postponement of the draft, and also authority to re-enlist the Mounted Rangers immediately, though the time of a portion of the regiment does not expire until the last of December.

Yesterday morning the following telegram was received:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19, 1863.
To Adjutant General Malross, St. Paul:
The 11th of November is fixed for commencing the draft in Minnesota. The six officers desired by the Governor, from the Mounted Rangers, for recruiting officers, may be taken by him, and the men of the Rangers also, desiring to enlist in the new regiment for three years may do so.

JAMES B. FRY,
Provost Marshal General.

The Governor was notified by telegraph and may conclude to abandon his journey for the present.

An order has also been received from the War Department to the effect that whenever a squad of volunteers for the new regiment are enlisted, they may be mustered in at once.

In noticing the draft on Sunday the Pioneer stated that Adjutant General Malross claimed "that our quota is already more than filled." This we are authorized to state is incorrect, as the Adjutant General does not, and has not claimed any such thing.

APOLGNETIC.
The constantly increasing pressure of advertisements upon our space obliges us to ask the indulgence of our readers for the comparatively meagre supply of reading matter in our columns, for a few days more, when we shall be able to obviate the difficulty and to more than make up for past deficiencies.

It frequently happens that several columns of important news, already in type, are crowded out by a flood of new advertisements. This is the case this morning, when the speech of "Earl Russell on American Affairs" and other important matters are crowded out. We have been waiting in vain for the tide of advertising to subside, and are therefore compelled to beg our readers to accept this apology till we can furnish a more substantial remedy.

THE FINANCIAL BAROMETTER.
The recent rise in gold is taken by some people to be the effect of recent military events, and as indicating an increased distrust in financial circles in the power of the Government to put down the rebellion within a reasonable period. The truth is, our military reverses have very little to do with the matter. The World of the 12th inst. probably gives the true explanation, as follows:

Secretary Chase—so reliable Washington advices state—intended to come upon the market this Wednesday or Thursday for another loan of fifty million dollars. This was one of the reasons for the rise in gold, as the intention was immediately interpreted as favorable circles in Wall Street. For some reason the Secretary was determined to postpone the application, but the necessities of the treasury are such that more money must be procured, for which Government will be compelled to give more of their interest-bearing treasury notes, which, of course, will swell the amount of currency already and probably put gold up to still higher figures.

No More Surrenders.
Brigadier General J. A. Garfield, Chief of Staff at Chattanooga, telegraphs as follows from that place, to Brigadier General Granger at Nashville:

Arrest the officers who surrendered at McMinnville, and have them tried for their conduct in the affair. Those who surrendered will be disgraced and punished. Notify the brigade guards that no surrenders are allowed.

If "Old Rosey" will carry out the order, and hang a few of the cowards who run before the enemy, we shall have no more disgraceful surrenders and ignominious retreats.

NEW TREASURY.
The rebels beat the world on elegance. The last effort is the following from the Petersburg Express:

We regret to hear that Major-General George H. Thomas, who fought so obstinately under Rosecrans, "the loyal calf," at Chickamauga, is a native of Southampton County, Va., and was born in Jerusalem, the county seat. It is said that Gen. Thomas has relatives in the county of Southampton who are deeply grieved at the course he has pursued. He is a graduate of West Point, and is said to possess military ability of a high order. This man must have a soft place in his head, we think.

—Gen. Meredith has succeeded in effecting the release of all the Chaplains of the Union army now held as prisoners of war by the rebels. In return, our Government has released all rebel Chaplains. About 25 were sent to City Point a few days ago. This policy, it is understood, will be carried out in the future, and chaplains will not be held as prisoners of war.

—During the month of September, 7,140 deserters were arrested, so far as known. When the reports of all the Deputy Provost Marshals are in, this number, it is estimated, will be swelled to near 9,000.

Celebration—Bragg in Front of Chattanooga—River Rising.
Nashville, Oct. 19, via Louisville.
A large Union meeting was held last night to celebrate the Tennessee and Ohio victories.

Officers from Chattanooga report Bragg's army in force in front of Chattanooga. They don't believe any part of the rebels have left to reinforce Lee.

killed, 16; men, 290; wounded officers, 69; men, 877; officers missing, 34; men, 527; total, 1,732

Losses of cavalry are not reported, but will make the grand aggregate about 16,000, of this number 4,085 are missing, and about 2,500 wounded; 36 pieces of artillery were lost, and a few wagons.

Southern papers of the 9th have been received.

They think their whole loss will not exceed 12,000, but partial returns published by them indicate that it is greater.

Hindman's division alone lost 2,100 out of 3,400 men.

They continue very despondent over the failure of Bragg to take Chattanooga.

Joe Johnston professed to have been all the time in Mississippi, and not with Bragg's army. Their reports from Mississippi say that two corps from Grant's army are moving to enclose Rosecrans, one overland from Memphis and the other by water.

Jeff Davis is reported to have arrived in Bragg's army on the 10th.

All quiet along our front for last two days.

The vote of the Ohio regiments belonging to the army at this point, as far as heard from up to this morning, are 9,423 for Bragg, to 252 for Vallandigham. 15 regiments and 8 batteries to be heard from, which may swell Bragg's majority to over 12,000.

Forests of rain continually falling, and kept both sides quiet for 3 days, all water courses rising, and roads getting very bad.

The following dispatch was received at headquarters to-day:

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 10.

To Major General Halleck, General-in-Chief: The following dispatch has just been received from Brig. Gen. Geo. Co. commanding the second cavalry division, dated Knoxville, October 18th:

I have to inform you that I have had three fights with the enemy since I left Sequatch Valley, whipping him very badly each time.

The last little affair, at Farmington, Tennessee, where I fought Wheeler's entire command with but two brigades. I cut his force in two, scattering a large portion of it and capturing four pieces of artillery, 1,000 stand of cavalry arms, and 140 prisoners, besides the wounded.

As I pushed after the enemy immediately I have not been able to ascertain the number of their killed and wounded, but it was very heavy. They were scattered over a distance of 100 miles from this. Their retreat was a perfect rout, their men deserting and straggling over the country.

I pursued them with great vigor, but their horses being better than mine, I was only able to come up with two regiments at Sugar Creek left to detain me. I made a charge on them, capturing some fifty and scattering the remainder. I reached the river and found that they had all crossed at a ford three miles above Swampy Ferry where they commenced to cross. I sent my troops more demoralized. I am satisfied their loss in the raid was not less than 2,000. No force can be entertained of their making another raid soon.

(Signed) GEO. COOK, Brig. Gen.

W. S. ROSECRANS, Major General.

SEVENTH AND TENTH MINNESOTA REGIMENTS IN SAINT LOUIS.

The Ninth at Jefferson City.

Minnesota Troops Guarding the City.

GEN. SCHOFIELD—COL. LIVINGSTON.

The Trip from St. Paul—Thanks for Courtesy.

Correspondence of the St. Paul Press.

The Seventh Minnesota is quartered in these barracks, on Chouteau Avenue. The Tenth Regiment is at Benton Barracks, four miles from the heart of the city, the Ninth Regiment, which went to Benton Barracks on its arrival last Monday, was ordered to Jefferson City, and left yesterday morning. It is probable the Seventh and Tenth will be kept here for several weeks—even months. Troops that had been stationed here, were sent to Jefferson City and vicinity, to check the rebel raiders under Shelby. Their Tenth Regiment is doing heavy guard duty throughout the city, guarding public property, offices, prisons, etc., and furnishing patrol and other guards of the Provost Marshal. It is relied on more immediately to preserve the good order and safety of the city.

Monday night Jim Lane spoke, and there were apprehensions of a riot. The Seventh was under arms and a heavy detail commanded by Capt. Gillman, at the Provost Marshal's office, ready to act at a moment's notice.

This morning Capt. Williston with a large guard conducted 516 rebel prisoners from the Hawkeye State steamer to Gratiot Street prison. These are examples of the duty required of the regiment. I have not met any officers of the Tenth since they went to Benton Barracks; I suppose their guard and other duty is confined to the barracks. The presence in, or near the city, is deemed necessary, to provide for possible contingencies. The First Missouri State Militia is also on duty in this city.

Major General Schofield is a quiet, modest-faced, gentlemanly looking man, hardly as old as Gen. Pope.

This—St. Louis—district is commanded by Col. R. R. Livingston, of the 1st Nebraska Volunteers. He is a brother of J. R. Livingston, Esq., of St. Paul. I believe that he is temporarily in command during the absence of Brigadier General W. R. Strong. The latter is a relation of our Colonel Wilkin of the Ninth.

Maj. G. K. Cleveland and wife are in the city. The Major is on duty here.

All mail matter for the 7th, 9th and 10th should be sent to St. Louis, "to follow the regiment."

It is not likely the 7th or 10th will leave here for two or three months, so the General Commanding intimates. One quite certainly will be retained here.

The trip from St. Paul was made with reasonable dispatch by all the regiments. The 7th is under great obligations to agent Rhodes of Davidson's line, Gen. Wilkin of the La Crosse road, and Mark Hendricks of the Northwestern. They were with the 7th over their respective lines, and did everything possible for the convenience and comfort of men and officers. Meals were furnished officers, and hot coffee the men. I wish I could say the same of the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis road.

Superintendent Allen, a former Minnesotan, who was engaged in locating several of our lines of railroad, started us off on Chicago in good shape, but we didn't go through on time, or specified conditions. During all of Sunday—we should have arrived in St. Louis early Sunday morning but did not until night—we got neither meals for officers nor coffee for the men, which the contract of transportation required.

You may hear again from the SEVENTH.

THE THIRD REGIMENT AT LITTLE ROCK.

APPEARANCE OF THE PLACE WHEN CAPTURED.

The Grave of a Fleeing Governor.

HEALTH OF THE REGIMENT, INCLUDING DENTS, ETC.

Correspondence of the St. Paul Press.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 21, 1863.

Little Rock is taken, just when and how others have doubtless advised you ere this.

Soldiering, whether theoretical, descriptive, or practical, has no charms for me. Military results—successes—I can appreciate, details I eschew.

But for this distaste, I should have sent you at once some particulars of the late "Arkansas Expedition."

Please accept now a few very unimpressive items concerning our trip hither as introductory to others of a political and miscellaneous character, with which I hope to be able occasionally to interest your readers, if so be we are to spend the winter here.

The expedition left Helena August 12th. The Helena Knobs were soon left behind, when we found the country extremely flat and well timbered. Once pretty well settled, it is now sadly desolated, and weeds cover the face of numberless fields once usefully fertile.

Further on, the lands are more dry and rich, and the few crops put in promised a rich harvest—until soldiers passed that way. We find this an excellent fruit region, capable, however, of larger development in this direction. Especially we are the peaches at our second camp (on Big Creek) the largest and in appearance the most luscious I—who could—or myself authority on the peach question—ever saw. Of course we didn't meddle with them.

Big Creek was the only stream we saw on our five days' trip to White river, and it resembles a bayou rather than a creek proper, having a scarcely perceptible current, and being obstructed along its entire course by numerous cypress trees and lilies, these last a decidedly unpleasant vegetable phenomenon. They seem to be root-knots, but they grow in groups remarkably straight and symmetrical, presenting a highly artificial appearance. They are to me strangely suggestive of the past, of things unnatural, mythical, or semi-real, of groups of carved images, which, taking color as situation or surroundings varied, might readily be taken for Druids, Naiads or water sprites, visitors to this matter-of-fact age, from one more imaginative.

On the fourth day we passed considerable pine timber—many of the trees being large and of healthy growth. The boys also brought in a large five-foot rattlesnake and a fine deer. Passed a tireless week at Clarendon, on White river. Our sick suffered most wretchedly before the general hospital at Duval's Bluff was fitted up. On reaching the Bluff they regained us from the boats, glad enough to escape from those "Black Holes," where, without any one to care for them, many were left to wallow in their own filth. Some eighteen were said to have died on the boats the first night.

They reached the Bluff one day before us, and many crawled out on the shore, where some died unattended and were to be seen on the bank next day unburied. I saw only one. Much suffering was unavoidable. How much and where we were sure is merited your readers should know, if I did. I think our regiment suffered quite as lightly as any; certainly our surgeons merit eulogy rather than censure.

The last week of August, in contrast to the previous one, was very cool; the nights especially, causing us to think of the rejected great coats we had slight frosts.

Sept. 1st we left Duval's Bluff: 25 miles brought us to the much talked of 25 mile Prairie, and a veritable genuine one it was too; in surface, soil, grass, meadows, and indeed all but evidence of civilization. It was refreshingly homelike; and even richer if possible in its well defined woodland borders than our home prairie. But how utterly wild! I have not seen a genuine prairie farm, and only occasionally an excuse for a human habitation in the edge of the woods; and yet the soil seems very rich. There is found, growing through all these wilds, a species of grape, called here "Muscadines," as large as your largest cultivated grapes, though less rich. One much smaller than some that were found, measured 2-3 inches in circumference. These, together with the other fruit, sweet and Irish potatoes, green corn, pumpkins, etc., found on the way, called no slight relief to our plain soldier rations. We saw on the route no white men, and but few contrabands. These last have all been run off Texas—usually to the Sabine River.

Of the skillful maneuvering, and the fine strategic movements and feats of the 10th of September, which gave us so easy and bloodless possession here, I shall presume you already know all I could tell you. Of this I assure you. "The Crossing of the Arkansas," as seen from our position at the ford above the pontoon, would, if it at all truthfully, embellish the pages of our best historical writers.

The rebel camp in rear of the truly formidable works three miles below here, presented, when we entered it, numerous evidences of the very undignified haste to leave, of its late occupants. One upon every hand and in all stages of preparation, from batter to charred, jerked meat by the wholesale was undergoing the enervating process over scores of the covered camp-pits, or a secondary process in frying-pans and stew-kettles. Fresh meat was equally plenty. Sacks of fresh meal, many of them unopened, lay around the cook fires beside camp kettles, mess, baking, frying and all sorts of pans, and a variety of camp equipment to extended two paragraphs. Besides, there were some old guns, carted boxes, etc., much rather indifferent clothing, and pikes, (pole and all some 8 feet long) by the hundreds, all left as the confusion of the surprise found them. There is no doubt Price's army was very much dispirited, besides having a really loyal and a semi-loyal, i. e., neutral, or cowardly element, so large he could not depend on them. Hereabout all is quiet now.

We have three or four hundred conscript deserters, and still they come. The number of those who have gone direct to their homes is much larger doubtless. By the way, I saw a few days since a weary deserter from the "Parole Camp" at Denopolis, Ala., where an attempt was made to collect the Vicksburg prisoners, who says he left but 300 there. He says they were assured that they had been exchanged and were about being sent into the field again. Scores of citizens are coming in, organizing, and receiving arms with which to operate against the "Bushwhackers," who are murdering and plundering in the region west of this.

Many have come 80 or 100 miles, or from beyond the Washington river. Oh! how it stirs one's blood to see as I have seen, the stout, resolute patriot, just unchained, bite his lip and turn aside and weep, as a friend asks "where is your brother?" And to hear the nervous soliloquizing woe of that friend, "They have killed him." And why? He loved his country; nor had either lying sophistry or force estranged him. Only this evening I had the horror of sharing my supper with a feeble old man with white-encl locks, who was not long since "strung up" until senseless, when some woman happening that way the wretched desecrated corpse.

Morris says: "I've ever this, when in life's storm, Hope's star to man grows dim, An angel kneels in woman's form, And breathes a prayer for him."

This man with others was in from his mountain hiding place, far back in the Washington, whence they had come wending their way hither, over the pathless hills.

In the corner here are the graves of the Rebel Generals Nelson and Walker, and of ex-Governor Calhoun Jackson, who was looking for an eligible location for his Missouri Capital. These graves are scarcely distinguished from those of the clutches and private soldiers near by. Walker was killed in a duel with Marmaduke just before our arrival. The original pencil inscription on the rude board at Jackson's head has been reduced, (as I presume by some of our Missouri soldiers,) and supplanted with various sentiments equally flattering.

The cars are making regular trips between here and Duval's Bluff, and our sick are expected here soon. The health of the troops is improving.

Colonel Andrews commands the post, and Lieut. Col. Martson the regiment. Capt. Fowler is Post, and Lieut. Gustafson Regimental Adjutant, and Lieutenant Greenleaf Brigade A. A. Q. M. Capt. Hodges has charge of the State Penitentiary and our prisoners, Lieut. DeKay of confiscated property, Lieut. Churchill of the convalescent camp at Helena, Lieut. (Capt. of Helena) guard at Duval's Bluff and Lieut. Minter has just gone to Memphis to hurry up our clothing. Dr. Greely and Lieut. Morse are home on sick furlough, and Lieut. Grummons and Lieut. Ward are at Helena, and Knight at the Bluff sick. Yours, MILES.

Escorting a Train for the Treaty Expedition.

FLOYD'S GHOST STEALING WHISKY.

INCIDENTS OF THE MARCH.

Correspondence of the St. Paul Press.

FORT RILEY, Oct. 15th, 1863.

Having just returned from escorting a train from this post to the Indian Treaty Expedition of the Red Lancers, for the purpose of transporting forage thither for the Expedition, I thought perhaps a brief account of the trip might not be wholly uninteresting to your readers.

The escort consisted of fifty men of Co. H, from this Post, and twenty-five of Co. I, from the Agency, commanded by Capt. McCoy, of Co. II, all of the Eighth Regiment.

The train left Sept. 17th, with forty days' rations, for this Post, but we succeeded in making the trip in twenty-six days, having returned here on the 12th instant.

During the past year we have traveled over a large extent of country, but in this trip our route lay through a region of country which we had not hitherto visited; hence, the promise of new and varied scenery gave increased interest to the trip. The weather for the most part was pleasant and the trip, on the whole, as agreeable as could be expected this season of the year. The land for the first fifty miles is much like that about Ripley, of a light sandy soil, and covered mostly with pine forests; but, as we approached the Otter Tail Lake it improves very much in quality, and, as we moved north of that Lake, we passed over as nice land as any I have seen in the State. A more beautiful distribution of lakes, woodland and prairie I had never witnessed before, as there is all the way for near 75 miles north of the Otter Tail, and, as a mail passes through here to Pembina twice a week, it will be a very desirable locality for the pioneer settler when Indian troubles get once fairly settled.

Our journey worthy of note; yet, two or three, perhaps might claim a passing notice.

On one unlucky Friday evening, September 25th, we encamped on the environs of a lake bearing the cognomen of the late noted Secretary Floyd; but, as our party was not much given to superstition, no extreme vigilance measures were adopted, and only the usual guard was stationed about the camp. A Dutch teamster of our party had a keg of whiskey with him which he had guarded with the utmost vigilance ever since he had started from below, and on that unfortunate night, he had taken the precaution to sleep with the whiskey keg clasped in his arms; but, in spite of all his watchfulness and precaution, ere Aurora broke in the east, the whiskey keg and all had disappeared, and the poor Dutchman woke to the sad realization that his charge was gone. All search for the whiskey in the morning proved unavailing. No clue to it was found. Our entire party appeared so innocent, and each bore so beaming with honesty, that it was impossible to suspect any of them guilty of the theft. Hence the conclusion became irresistible that the ghost of the thiefish Secretary Floyd had taken up his abode about this lake, and taking itself to his old dithers habits it was indulging its propensity by pilfering from the trains which pass this way.

In this connection, I would mention another little incident of a similar character which happened to one of our boys who had made himself very famous as a hunter. The Otter Tail, when escorting the famed Diana to the chase never pursued their game with greater zeal and alacrity than this modern Nimrod. Every brake, bush or hillock appeared to his excited fancy a buck, buffalo, or "cinnamon" bear. Nor did any expense more delight in the rare and savory dishes prepared of the wild fowl he got. On the day that we left Floyd Lake our hero had the most successful day in his life, and he was successful in dipping the wild duck on the wing, and after we had pitched our tents on Buffalo Ridge, a little to the left of a small filthy lake our party very appropriately called Mud Lake, and which no doubt is the abode of all the evil genii of that region, he commenced dressing his game, and made every preparation for a most delicious breakfast report the next morning, and then retired to rest with the prospect of duck and all such dainties floating through his mind. But, alas! the next day he arose to find that all his bright visions had faded and disappeared with the morning's dawn. Some evil spirit had appropriated his ducks, or spirited them away, and as we contemplated him that morning, sitting down with sorrowful countenance, to his regular pork and hard-tack, we were sadly impressed with the truth of the apt saying, "The best of schemes or plans on men, Gang affa glee."

And leave us tonight but grief and pain for spoiled sport?

Sunday, Sept. 27th, we reached the Wild Rice River and on our march thither, or a countermost a most tremendous practice fire, which created not a little excitement among the troops, or rather should say among the teamsters, for your ox is not a creature of excitement, nor is he a sensationist. He is the true type of a philosopher, and whatever impressions were manifested from the Wagon Master to the poor soldier who threw away his sack of tobacco, your cool, deliberate, philosophical ox discovered no such weakness, when roused through the fire by his frantic master, till he lays down to die like a heroic veteran and philosopher, without a murmur.

On the morning of the 28th our oxen like the sages of old retired to the shades of the Aspidochelone Groves to muse over the mishaps of the previous day. Nor were their musings disturbed that day by the wailings of the teamsters who vainly sought the plaine in search of them. The oxen returned however with their accustomed comeliness the next morning, and pursued their wonted journey to Sand Hill River. To 1863.

On the 30th we passed the Sand Hill to within about 20 miles of the Treaty grounds where we met a messenger returning, who informed us that there was no fear for the oxen at the Red Lake crossing, hence the horse teams were sent forward, and the ox teams were turned back to the Sand Hill to await the return of the expedition. Thus, the oxen by their sagelike habits avoided a march of 40 miles and two days of sorrowing and fasting.

Saturday, Oct. 3d, we broke camp and turned our faces homeward. We remarked no new incidents on our return worthy of note.

There were Mud Lake and Floyd Lake which we had before to have found sunk, spread out before us as provokingly as ever, while our Hero of the hunt frowned on the one, and our dutiful teamster scowled on the other. We arrived safely at our old post, on Monday the 12th inst., very thankful of having escaped the many perils of ghosts and goblins, fire and water.

Very respectfully yours, HORTON.

JUDGE MEEKER IN NORTHFIELD.

NORTHFIELD, Oct. 16th, 1863.

To the Editors of the St. Paul Press:

Judge Meeker, in behalf of that former set known as Copperheads, held forth last evening. He had about thirty hearers, nearly all Republicans. He spoke in a place a trifle larger than a common school-room, and plenty of room at that. It was well he had space to operate in, for the acting part was the most interesting part of the performance.

As a pantomime, it was very rich. Judge Meeker, in the power of his eloquence and mania; he did it to perfection last evening. And as a revision of his story, it was by no means deficient. He set history all right. The North broke the Union to pieces. The first stroke that did it, was the opposition to the admission of Missouri as a slave state. The next, was the rending of the Methodist Church by the same meddling and destructive North. The next was the tearing asunder of the Baptist Church—a new historic verity—by the same mischievous North. The next was the breaking in two, and by the same divisive hand of the great Presbyterian Church. The North was fighting the South and not the South the North. And also the firing on Sumter, it was as he explained it, more the work of the Federals than of the Rebels. The North, or the dominant faction of the North, was determined to have blood. They voted down the Crittenden Compromise that would have given us peace; and not a man in the Senate, not a man, who voted against that compromise, would consent to shed his own blood. All of them drew good fat salaries from the Peace Establishment. Col. Baker, of course, didn't shed his blood; Judge Meeker, the reviser of American History says he didn't! And then Lincoln made an awful mistake, when he proposed to buy the slaves of the border States; and an awful error, when he declared the slaves of the rebels free, and the awful error of all, when he decided not to let the rebel States come back as they were, when they got tired of fighting. He thought this the unkindest cut of all! And then, to cap the climax, Lincoln hadn't killed off all the Indians. Ramsey, instead of going for the extermination of the Chippewas, had just made a treaty with them, giving them $20,000 a year. For the right of way through the most sterile, God-forsaken country on earth! He thought it time to have a change in rulers and policy; that is, as we gathered, to have a class of men put into power, who would spare all the dear rebels, together with the rebel institution of slavery, and kill off all the loyal Indians! This was the great desideratum. Well, it was an instructive deliverance. He evidently felt depressed. The spirit of the town was not to his taste; the news from Ohio and Pennsylvania did not materially help him; and then not a cheer—not a movement of the foot—unless towards the door—did he have. It was distressing. Every one, with any sort of sensibility, must have sympathized with him. No one of fered to reply; not a man in the whole of Northfield was craved enough to attempt such a thing. We hope the Judge will keep on until election, and have, everywhere, the full measure of success he had here. May the Evil Spirit ever be with him! Yours,

ANTI-COPPERHEAD.

General Headquarters, State of Minnesota.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 18, 1863.

[GENERAL ORDERS NO. 73.]

Authority having been obtained from the War Department to organize a regiment of cavalry to take the place of the 1st Regiment Mounted Rangers, whose term of enlistment will soon expire, to serve for three years, or during the war, the Adjutant General of the military forces of the State, confident that our citizens will not prove second in devotion to the country to those of any other State, and will perceive the necessity of sufficiently protecting our people against the savages who have spread death and desolation over our frontier settlements, hereby directs the organization of a regiment of cavalry, to be designated "The First Regiment of Cavalry Minnesota Volunteers," to serve for the period above named.

All men recruited for this regiment before the commencement of the draft now ordered, will be credited to the State on that draft.

An early organization of the regiment, helps necessary. It is recommended that the several counties form at once military committees for the purpose of encouraging enlistments and assisting in the immediate organization of the regiment.

The regiment will be organized as follows:

TWELVE COMPANIES OR TROOPS.

1. Captain.

1. Lieutenant Colonel.

3. Surgeons.

2. Assistant Surgeons.

1. Regimental Adjutant (an extra Lieut.).

1. Regimental Quartermaster (an extra Lieut.).

1. Regimental Commissary (an extra Lieut.).

1. Chaplain.

1. Veterinary Surgeon.

1. Sergeant Major.

1. Quartermaster Sergeant.

1. Commissary Sergeant.

2. Hospital Stewards.

1. Saddler Sergeant.

1. Chief Trumpeter.

COMPANIES OR TROOPS OF CAVALRY.

1. First Lieutenant.

1. Second Lieutenant.

1. First Sergeant.

1. Quartermaster Sergeant.

1. Commissary Sergeant.

5. Sergeants.

8. Corporals.

2. Farriers or Blacksmiths.

1. Saddler.

1. Wagoner.

1. Private—maximum.

178 Privates—maximum.

All companies and parts of companies raised under this order will report at Fort Snelling, Minnesota.

Subsistence and lodging of recruits from the time of their enlistment and prior to their muster into service, will be paid by the Government, at a rate not exceeding forty cents per day.

Necessary transportation of recruits will be paid for at the current rates of stage and steamboat fare.

One Second Lieutenant for each company in said regiment, will be appointed and mustered into the United States service, who shall have authority to muster in recruits as they are enlisted. If any recruit shall be enlisted by such officer, who shall afterwards on medical inspection prove to have been obviously unfit for the service at the time of his enlistment, all expenses caused thereby shall be paid by such officer, to be stopped against him from any payment that may be coming to him from the government thereafter. Any officer thus appointed and mustered shall only be entitled to be paid on the muster and pay roll of his company, and should he fail to secure an organized company within such reasonable time as may be specified in his letters of appointment, his men may be transferred to some other company; his appointment be revoked and he be discharged without pay; unless it should be deemed proper to give him a position in the consolidated company to which his men have been transferred; articles of enlistment, as in the regular army, will be made out in triplicate by such recruiting officers, one copy of which will be sent to the Adjutant General of the State, one to the Adjutant of the regiment, and one will be kept by the recruiting officer.

Recruits will be sent to the regimental rendezvous at Fort Snelling, at least as often as once a week, when they will be immediately examined by the Surgeon of the regiment or the Post Surgeon, and if found unfit for duty by reason of permanent disability, will be discharged from service forthwith by the Surgeon, and will not receive such discharges to the Adjutant General of the State and also the Adjutant of the regiment, noting particularly those cases where the disability was obvious at the time of enlistment.

The muster-roll of each company will be made out by the Adjutant of the regiment from a list to be furnished by the Adjutant General of the State, together with the articles of enlistment furnished him by the recruiting officer, and will note upon it the names of all persons discharged by the Surgeon for permanent disability, designating particularly those cases where the disability was apparent at the time of enlistment.

Recruiting officers appointed and commissioned under these orders, are hereby ordered to forward to these headquarters, at least once a week, the articles of enlistment of the men recruited by them during the preceding week.

The commissions of officers who fail to comply strictly with these orders will be immediately revoked.

A premium of two dollars will be paid by the United States for each accepted recruit who volunteers for six months.

There will be paid also in advance, besides one month's pay to each recruit, the sum of twenty-five dollars, being one-fourth of the amount of bounty allowed by law, and the balance of the bounty shall be paid to each company, to which such recruits belong, into the service of the United States.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief, OSCAR MALMROS, Adjutant General.

THE SOUTHERN AND MISSISSIPPI RAILROAD.

We are glad to learn that efforts are being made in good earnest to secure the early construction of this road—the vital importance of which to the interests of this city yesterday endeavored to impress upon the people of St. Paul. While nearly every other important town and city in the State has been laboring for years with provident and sagacious forethought, to wrest some peculiar advantage for itself from the railroad development of the State, St. Paul alone, relying too much on her natural advantages of position, has been content to let her future take care of itself, while she sat supinely counting the slippery grains of the present.

By a direct Railroad connection by the nearest possible route with the head of Lake Superior she may yet retrieve the advantages she has almost lost by her lethargy in the past, and make the whole Railroad system of the State, like all its water-lanes, tributary to her commerce. She cannot awake a day too soon to the vital importance, nay to the imperious necessity, of this enterprise, if she would preserve her present commercial pre-eminence.

The enterprising settlements of Western Wisconsin are leaving no stone unturned to push forward a road from Hudson to Bayfield and to run a branch track from the former place to this city, the effect of which would be simply to establish Hudson as the depot of transshipment for the trade between the Mississippi and Lake Superior, and to sink St. Paul into a mere way station for all freight destined for the Lake. A direct road from St. Paul to Lake Superior would be fifty miles shorter than from this city via Hudson to Bayfield, and would, of course, make an immense difference in favor of the direct road, in the cost of construction, the permanent running expenses and the cost of transportation.

The head of Lake Superior is as near New York as the head of Lake Michigan, and a direct outlet upon the former, by the shortest line, for the products of the Mississippi Valley would virtually place the grain districts of Minnesota on a par commercially with those of Illinois, and thus annihilate all our present disadvantages of distance from market and raise the prices of grain, meats and other products to the Illinois standard. In the same ratio it would enhance the value of our agricultural lands, or rather in a greater ratio, for the greater productive capacity of our soil for wheat must be taken into the account; it would soon double and treble the population and the taxable property of this city, and maintain it permanently in its present pre-eminence as the Commercial Emporium of the Upper Mississippi.

On the other hand, by the proposed arrangement with our Wisconsin friends, St. Paul would simply abdicate its whole magnificent future to sink into a mere tender to the rural settlements on the banks of Lake St. Croix and the State at large, would be defrauded of a large proportion of the benefits which would flow from the shorter and more direct connection.

We are very sorry to say that among the prominent advocates of this Wisconsin Scheme are several parties—old residents too—who would be perfectly willing to sacrifice the most vital interests of St. Paul to enhance the value of town lots in and about Bayfield, and retrieve their desperate ventures in that famous Maclostroom of Southern finances.

The disclosure of their purpose ought to be all that is needed to prevent its accomplishment. The farmers of two-thirds of the State of Minnesota cannot afford to pay a perpetual tax of 36 percent, on all freights received or forwarded by the lakes for the benefit of the lot-owners of Bayfield.

We have not been advised of the means by which it is sought to secure the building of the direct connection with Lake Superior, but it is at least certain that no Hercules would come to lift our wagon out of the mire until we put our own shoulders to the wheel.

It can be readily demonstrated that such a road would pay handsomely on the cost of construction, from the day of its completion. But in addition to the intrinsic financial merits of the enterprise, it will be recollected that, at a recent session of the Legislature, it received a valuable grant of swamp lands in aid of its prosecution.

St. Paul has interest enough in its accomplishment, and she has wealth enough to add what little inducement may be necessary to turn some of the superabundant capital of the county into this promising channel.

"WASTE PAPER."

By the following from the Cincinnati Commercial of 15th, it will be seen that Dr. Olds, who recently made a treasurable speech at Market Hall in this city, has lost a fine opportunity:

About three hundred pounds of Democratic tickets, were yesterday disposed of to a dealer in a single lot. It is to be regretted that Dr. Olds' friends did not hear of this sale of assets in time to have provided that distinguished martyr with waste paper enough for all future contingencies.

In order to "take time by the forelock," we would suggest to the Dr. the propriety of arranging with Mr. Welles, of Minneapolis, for the surplus rags in this State that will be left on his hands two weeks from to-day. The quantity will supply the martyr with "waste paper" for several years, while the quality will be just the thing.

We are informed by persons direct from St. Louis that the Tenth Regiment has been ordered on guerrilla service in the interior of Missouri.

The Ninth regiment is at Benton Barracks near Jefferson City, awaiting orders.

The Seventh is doing Provost Guard duty in the city of St. Louis. Their head quarters are at Schofield Barracks, in the heart of the city. These barracks are very ill contrived, and decidedly a poor place for soldiers.

The friends of Sunset Cox in Cleveland, telegraphed to him several times on the evening of election, asking how the State had gone. The dispatch was repeated several times but elicited no reply until about midnight, when the following was received:

To Chairman Democratic Central Committee, Cuyahoga County:
The State has gone to U— by 50,000 majority.
S. S. COX.

According to the Mankato Union, Brislin was sick when he visited that place with his worthy co-laborer, Welles, and said his physician had prescribed brandy and the essence of corn to recuperate him. We should judge from the reports of this celebrated stamping tour, that he "recuperated" several times a day.

Our of thirty-three counties heard from in Iowa, thirty-five majorities for Stone, and three for the Copperhead Tuttle. The majority in the State will range from 25,000 to 30,000.

The LaCrosse Democrat, celebrated only for foolishness and falsehood, told a woful tale the other day about the beating of a soldier at Winona, because he voted the Democratic ticket. The Winona Republican says that nothing of the kind ever occurred. This nips in the bud one Copperhead aspiration to martyrdom.

An election was held in Nebraska on the 13th for Members of the Legislature. As near as can be ascertained, the present House will stand 27 Unionists to 12 Democrats. The Council will stand 8 Union to 5 Democrats. The Territorial Auditor and Treasurer are "Opposition."

The Union majority in the late election in Nevada was 3,500. The majority in favor of the State Government was 7,000. Every county gives a Union majority, and in one county—Douglas—not a single vote was polled.

—Kate Chase is to be married to Senator Sprague on the 12th of next month.

—What an unfortunate thing it was for Benedict Arnold that he was not born eighty years later. He might have been a "Democratic" hero, and probably a candidate for Governor. His language is closely copied by some of the most "illustrious" Copperhead martyrs of the present day.

The First Minnesota at Bristow Station.

Their Casualties in the Engagement of the 14th.

They Capture 123 Prisoners and Two Pieces of Artillery.

We are indebted to Mr. B. A. Squires, the managing operator of the telegraph in this city, for a copy of the following dispatch, he having telegraphed Gov. Swift at La Crosse, and obtained permission to make it public:

To the Governor of Minnesota, St. Paul:

Our corps had an engagement yesterday, the 14th inst., at Bristow Station, with A. P. Hill's Confederate force. We gained a handsome victory.

The casualties in our regiment are as follows:

Company A—Sam J. Tickers, and George P. Clark, slightly wounded, J. Forring, missing.

Company B—Capt. Thos. Sinclair, arm, slight; Private Fred. Burns, back, slight.

Company C—Corporal H. Gusty, arm, slight.

Company D—Private L. C. Carter, hip; A. B. Criffing, leg.

Company E—Private W. Pride, hand, slight; E. B. Lovell, hand, slight.

Company F—Private Kane Cronin, killed; Capt. John Ball, arm, leg and groin, severe; Private Chas. A. Berdon, arm, slight; Private E. G. Frost, arm, slight.

Company G—Lieut James Degraw, arm, slight; R. H. Hasset, head, slight; J. G. Barker, shoulder, slight.

Company H—Sergeant H. N. Lowe, leg, severe.

Company K—Private John in left finger, slight.

Private B. Best, leg, slight.

Company L—Charles P. Backer, throat, slight.

The regiment made their hundred and twenty-two prisoners, including two field officers and several line officers and also took two pieces of artillery.

—Mrs. VALLANDIGHAM took her departure from Dayton on Friday, and on Monday last week, saying as she bade her friends farewell, that she never expected to return until she returned with her husband, Governor of Ohio. We have the honor to bid you, madame, a long and final farewell.

—The name of Brough, the successful candidate for Governor of Ohio, is pronounced bluff. The Copperheads will see, therefore, that it rhymes with tough, rough and snuff.

—The Western Reserve—sometimes called Cheeloom—promised to give Brough 25,000 majority, which was the number given to Lincoln. But it did better. It actually gave the enormous majority of 30,745. Cheeloom consists of eleven counties, and Cleveland is the Capital. Here is the result of two of the Reserve counties: Lake, Brough, 2,737; Val. 333; Geauga, Brough, 2,981; Val. 332. There lies above Cincinnati a region called the "Miami Valley," of about the same area of the Western Reserve. It gave Brough more than 25,000 majority. In former days it was a Whig, as the Reserve was a Free Soil stronghold.

—"Agate" writes that great merriment was caused in Washington over a rebuff given by Mr. Lincoln to the chairman of the Missouri League. Calling at the White House at an early hour, he sought an interview with the President. In a moment the servant came out with the message—"The President is sorry, but he really can't see you. He has a hundred pages of the manuscript you just left to read yet!"

—The Commissioners to take the vote of the Ohio brigade at Memphis, have reported, through Col. Fuller, the following as the result of the election:

Twenty-seventh Ohio Infantry—Brough, 425; Vallandigham, 10; 43rd Ohio Infantry—Brough, 435; 36th Ohio Infantry—Brough, 437; Vallandigham, 9; Brough's majority, 288; 43d Ohio Infantry—Brough, 396; Vallandigham, 31; Brough's majority, 225; 63d Ohio Infantry—Brough, 296; Vallandigham, 12; Brough's majority, 232. Total for Brough, 1,881; total for Vallandigham, 1,492.

—The Petersburg Express, of Oct. 8, says: "His Excellency, President Davis, passed through Petersburg yesterday, on the 6 o'clock morning train, for some point south. The President was accompanied only by a friend or two, and but for the fact that he is so well known by the people of the country, he would have gone through unnoticed. He was looking well, and appeared to be in excellent spirits."

—Persons recently from Paris say that the accomplished and elegant young man sent out by the rebel government as dinner-out to influence opinion in French society, had been left quite without money. Mr. Sillid refuses to advance any more of his own funds, and the northerners refuse to lend.

—Hon. John M. Botta was arrested by rebels at his house, on Monday last, during a cavalry fight near Brandy Station. He has since been taken to Richmond, where he will doubtless be imprisoned and held for the return of Shackelford, Bradford, Freeman, and other secessionists of Culpepper county now in the old Capital. Mr. Botta was a paroled prisoner to the Confederacy.

A French Fleet to be Sent to the Gulf.

A Washington letter to the Philadelphia Ledger says:

"I learn from high authority that the petition of the French residents of New Orleans to the Emperor, praying that a suitable fleet may be sent for their protection in the event of any sudden trouble, has been promptly and favorably responded to, and that some half dozen vessels of war will soon be within easy call of the French Consul in that city."

—It has been charged by some that the above petition was a mere plot to bring a heavy French naval force into the Gulf, and thus add to the chances of that still greater plot for the embolment of the two powers in difficulty.

—From what I can learn, however, I am inclined to believe this charge to be unfounded, as I have seen myself a letter from some of the first French citizens in New Orleans upon this very subject, wherein was a thought of difficulty with the United States was mentioned, or even vaguely hinted at."

Rebels Falling Back Toward the Rapidan—Mosby Near Washington—Rebel Raid into Maryland Probable.

New York, Oct. 20.

[Herald's Special.]—It is now quite evident that the rebels are falling back towards the Rapidan and our army often them battle by advancing.

Construction trains have run as far as Bristow station today and to-morrow supply trains will run to, or beyond that point. The Treble Bridge at Bristow was burned by the rebels and the track between Manassas and Culpeper station almost wholly torn up by them.

Slight skirmishing to day does not indicate a general engagement.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.

Yesterday White's and Mosby's guerrillas, numbering about 100 men, came down from Aldie near Chantilly, and taking the Frye Pan road, succeeded in getting between the army and the direction of Leesburg.

Our cavalry, with a view of covering the main body of the army, and their main body is evidently concealed. The guerrillas are now in the direction of Leesburg and Ball Run Mountains and along back to their entrenched position on the Rapidan, but by the strength of the rebels, our cavalry is thought, the principal part of his infantry have been sent in the direction of Harper's Ferry and Winchester

THE CITY.

THE FUNERAL OF CAPT. MILLER.
The funeral of Capt. Miller, late of Company D, 1st regiment, took place yesterday morning from the Athenaeum, and was attended by a large number of citizens and military. The procession moved through the streets headed by the Great Western Band, and an escort of field and staff officers on horseback with Gen. Sibley, Capt. Saunders, Adjutant General Mahon and others in carriages, besides an infantry company from Fort Snelling, and a number of coaches filled with the friends of the deceased. The procession went as far as the city hall on the Stillwater Road, and returned to the city. The body was taken to Stillwater, and buried there yesterday afternoon.

Those who were acquainted with Capt. Miller as a pleasure never enjoyed speaking of him in the highest terms. He entered the army as a private and worked his way up to captaincy by his bravery and devotion, never faltering at danger, or shrinking from hardship. To such men the funeral cortege which passed through our streets yesterday is a tribute eminently due.

POLICE COURT.—A low fellow named Pat, or Tim, or some other uncommon name of that kind, was arraigned yesterday on charge of assault on a woman. It seems that Pat lives in the highly moral and refined neighborhood of the Gas Works. He has been in the habit of beating his wife occasionally, and having become pretty well practiced in that innocent diversion, traced the same game on a female neighbor, with whom he picked a quarrel. Squire Gibbs did not see it in that light, but asked that he be fined $5 with the city as license for his new amusement. The woman would pay the fine and depart, looking about as sheepish as a whipped dog. A good subject for the draft, if he was decent enough to associate with other men.

FIRE.—Yesterday afternoon the house of Mr. Welch, on Eleventh street, near St. Peter, was consumed by fire, with all the contents. Mrs. Welch had gone away from home leaving two small children inside, and locked the door. Pretty soon smoke was seen issuing from the house. One of the neighbors, an old German named Wagner, broke it open, and barely rescued the two children from a terrible death. They were all three badly scorched as it was. Everything in the house was destroyed. Loss about $300.

Hope Eugene Company and the Hook and Ladder Company were both on hand, and rendered what aid they could.

DISTRICT COURT.—Second Judicial District.—Before Judge Palmer.—Fall Term.—Third Day.

The case of Whitaker vs. Culver was continued again yesterday morning, and brought to a close about 10 o'clock. After being out several hours, the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff of $2,400.00.

A jury was then empaneled in the case of Ossian E. Dodge against H. Rogers, Plaintiff claiming a piano which defendant retains possession of, on the grounds of receiving it for services as agent of Plaintiff. Case not concluded.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judge R. R. Nelson, Fall Term, Third Day.

The case of Davis, Pope, Sharpe & Co., vs. C. A. Morgan, was brought up. A jury was empaneled, and the case was ready to proceed at the hour of adjournment. Mr. Lamprey for plaintiffs, Horne, Lund & Galusha for defendant. Judge Nelson ordered that in the absence of H. L. Moss, Esq., the United States District Attorney, on account of sickness in his family, Orlando Simmons, he and is hereby appointed to act as District Attorney in his place.

A LOCAL GOBLIN.—Mr. C. of the Pioneer, has been gobbled up by one of those roaring lions known as Deputy Sheriffs, who go about periodically, seeking whom they can seize on for a special juryman. We saw our lamented "confederate" on one of the seats last night, looking about as happy as Vallandigham probably did when he heard from Ohio. We sympathize with you, Mr. C., from the bottom of our several and individual hearts.

GREAT RUSH TO BLUM'S.—We notice that friend Blum, corner of 3rd and Cedar streets, is making a great excitement with a fine lot of Ladies Dress Goods, which he has just opened. No wonder, Blum is selling them at New York prices, and of course they are going fast. He wants to make room for a very large and fine lot of Winter Goods coming, but the bargains he offers now are unexcelled. Goods are advancing so that he is selling now at less than New York prices.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Richard Gordon, Esq., fell from a stepladder at the levee yesterday, and came near finding a watery grave. Fortunately, however, he was rescued. The water was at least one foot deep. It is terrible to reflect how near the community was to losing this estimable young man. We are glad to learn, too, that Dick has become a Baptist.

RETURNED.—Capt. W. B. Dean and Judge Stone, Commissioners to take the vote of the Minnesota soldiers in Rosecrans' army, arrived home yesterday. They were blocked in Chattanooga several days, fired at by guerrillas, and had muddy hair-breadth escapes. We hope that Capt. Dean, having heard of the "big" war, and the "mild" who have not had that pleasure, and are quaking in our boots at fear of the draft.

Y. M. C. A.—There will be an important meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association on Thursday evening to take into consideration a proposition to unite with the Mercantile Library Association.

RAILROAD IRON ARRIVED.—About 400 tons of iron for the Pacific Road arrived yesterday on the Clara line.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.—Some unprincipled parties have put up a large amount of worthless stuff called Salabras, and scattered it all over the Western States, much to the detriment of B. B. De Land & Co.'s excellent Salabras. This worthless stuff is put up in blue or green paper and called "B. B. De Land & Co.'s Housewives' Favorite" or "Chemical Salabras" and is put up in bright red paper. Beware of imposition.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of Wisconsin.
Is the best Company for Western men to insure in, because it is made up of, and managed by western men, and in thus having its capital reside in this, the healthiest portion of the Union, it is believed that its rate of mortality will be lower than that of Eastern Companies, in fact it has been in the past. The Company is now in its fifth year of business, and has proven an entire success, having issued over four hundred policies and accumulated two hundred thousand dollars.

reserved premiums. It started without guarantee capital, and experience has proven that none was necessary.

The business of the Company is conducted upon the same general basis as that of the most successful Eastern Companies, with the advantage of having the experience of the older ones, as its guide.

There are now a large number of members of the Company in St. Paul and vicinity, among whom are some of our best business men.

NORTH-WESTERN AGENCY,
Third Street, St. Paul.
O. CURTIS, Manager.

Either of the above gentlemen will at all times be happy to give information to members or others, in regard to this very successful western institution, and will also assist in making up applications for insurance there.

The following notice, copied from the New York Insurance Monitor, as good authority as there is, speaks well:

"The trustees of this prosperous Company have issued a policyholders' directory, which is a valuable and very complete record of the condition of insurance corporations. Within the last year, the Company's losses, from all causes, have not equaled the amount estimated in the tables of mortality, upon which the Company's business is based. Its assets on the other hand, have increased 53 per cent, by an addition of $1,196,335, and a considerable increase is recorded in the per cent. of assets to completed liabilities. The total assets of the company, now amount to $1,622,257. Within the past year the sum of $305,533.48 has been received in premiums and interest, from the sum of $18,587.35 is to be deducted for disbursements, and to which the sum of $3,536.17 is to be added for accrued interest and deferred premiums. This sum at least on hand, the Company's assets, as appears by this report, is safely and profitably invested. We are glad to record such prosperity. This corporation was started with out capital—which say the trustees, 'in the Insurance Company, is only a continual expense to policyholders'—yet its accumulations now reach the sum of $1,622,257.37, and it has now in force 2,283 policies insuring $1,076,150. May it continue to flourish, growing with the growth, and strengthening with the strength of the great Western States!"

LOCAL NOTICES.

Miss Wilson would call the attention of the Ladies of St. Paul and vicinity, to her Grand Opening of Fall and Winter Millinery and Fancy Goods, on Thursday, Oct. 23d. oct23-24

A young gentleman from the East is desirous of securing a situation as clerk or salesman. A position in an office where writing is required would be preferred. Address "W. J. PRESS OFFICE."

—Vallandigham sits on the dock at Windsor, waiting for dispatches from the American side, and sadly whistling—
"Do they miss me at home,
Do they miss me,
Do they miss me,
To know that this moment the loved ones
Were saying, 'I wish he were here.'"

THE CITY.

WHOLESALE LEATHER AND FINDINGS
STORE IN CHICAGO. Messrs. Turner & Sillway, No. 49 Lake street, have greatly extended their business, and now announce the opening of the first regular Wholesale Leather and Findings House in the West. The capital, long experience and extensive facilities possessed by this firm, warrant them in defying competition in this line. They own one of the largest tanneries in Ohio, and are making the manufacture of the finer grades of oak-tanned calfskins, and other light leathers, a specialty, and are also largely engaged in the manufacture of Houshok Leather. There is also a good demand in this country for imported leather, and they have the most extensive stock of leather and findings to be found West of New York. Country merchants and jobbers will find it to their interest to give them a call before purchasing elsewhere.—Chicago Tribune.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The arrival of 400 cars of iron for the Pacific Road has given a new impetus to track building. A force is now at work laying the iron. Two cars went out on Wednesday evening, and one more yesterday. The rail will be sufficient to lay the track to Mammoth, seven miles beyond St. Anthony. It will be finished by that point by tomorrow night, and trains will at once run through. There remains only seven miles yet to complete, to reach Anoka. Such arrangements have been made with freight boats as to have no doubt that the balance of the rail, so far as the road to Anoka, will be laid by the end of the month. As far as it arrives it will be laid, so that trains will be running to Anoka by January 1st at the latest.

SUPERIOR TO "ADAM REDE."—Broken Columns—A Novel—One Volume 12mo. Price $1.50.—Peter Payne, the essayist, says of it: "I have compared with your request and read 'Broken Columns' carefully through. I do not hesitate to pronounce it, in my judgment, superior to 'Adam Rede.' The plot is attractive, and the execution is singularly accurate to perfection. I am confident where it is read and known it will have an extensive sale."

Judge Knapp of Chicago says: "I have read 'Broken Columns,' and it was the finest literary treat I ever had. Published by Sheldon & Co., New York, and for sale by D. D. Merrill, 3rd street. The above testimony will be deemed sufficient and we only add that Sheldon & Co. are trying to meet the demands of the reading public. This is the second excellent book this month. We would say to our readers, call at Merrill's and get Peter Payne and Broken Columns, too."

MINNESOTA SOLDIERS IN THE LEPIDOL COURSE.—From a circular, "General Orders, No. 238," sent by General Townsend, Assistant Secretary of War, to Governor Swift, dated October 23rd, we find the number of each regiment of our Minnesota Volunteers, who have been transferred to the Invalid Corps, to be as follows:

First Regiment, 2d Second, 1st; Third, 4th; Fourth, 1st; Fifth, 1st; Sixth, 2nd; Seventh, 2nd; Eighth, 1st; Tenth, 2nd.

It appears that the Sixth has suffered severely from disease. It has had more than twice as many transfers to the Invalid Corps from their ranks than all the others together.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Before Judge Nelson—Fall term, fourth day.

The act on Davis, Peter, Ship & Co., vs. Charles A. Morgan, was then commenced. The case was set for trial on October 23rd, and was argued by counsel. Verdict for plaintiff, $129.55. Morris Lamphere plaintiff's attorneys. Ilmor, Lund & Galusha, defendant's attorneys.

The case of Morgan T. Rich vs. Hartford Fire Insurance Co., was then commenced. McCure for plaintiff. Judge Wilder for defendant. There are all Red Wing parties.

DISTRICT COURT.—Second Judicial District—Before Judge Palmer, fall term, fourth day.

The case of Ossian E. Dodge vs. H. Rogers, was brought to a close yesterday, and given to the jury. Verdict for defendant.

The case of Graft & Bailey vs. B. Galloway, was commenced and in progress up to the hour for closing.

FINE WINES AND LIQUORS.—Capt. Geo. Benz has just received a new lot of Rhein Wines, California Wines, and California Wine Bottles—something new. Also, fine Cognac, and some pure Havana Cigars. He gives a free concert to-morrow evening, when he will open his new bar, built of splendidly carved oak.

THE WEATHER.—We were greeted with quite a snow shower yesterday. The feather takes came down for a few hours quite lively, but melted as they fell. This early snow storm is said by the weather wise to be an indication of a spell of good weather which will probably last until late in the season. It is certainly too early to expect winter to come yet in real earnest.

OUR FIFTH REGIMENT.—The commission officers of the Fifth Heavy Artillery, to secure permission from the War Department to come home and recruit, a permission that has been granted to other regiments. For some alleged reason, however, they were not allowed to do so.

EQUAL ANY TIME TO WAR NEWS.—The news that Prof. Bernhardt has received by Express a splendid assortment of his Patent Double Vision and Parabolic Glass from the East. Those who have not been to see him should call soon or they will be too late.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE 2d CAVALRY.—Adjutant John T. Morrison, informs us that he will be found at Fort Snelling, on and after today. Recruits for the 2d Cavalry Regiment should be sent to him there.

POLICE COURT.—A chap named Woodward, was arraigned on charge of assault on old Heitz of the Napoleon Saloon. The case was continued until this morning.

Our thanks are due to our old citizen, Joseph Ullmann, Esq., who arrived home from New York on the cutter yesterday, for copies of late Eastern papers.

DELANEY, on Fort street, has delivered a fresh lot of game, poultry, and other delicacies in his line. Give him a call.

GRAND BALL
 or REX
Germania Singing Society,
 AT THE ATHENAEUM,
 MONDAY, OCTOBER 26.

During the evening the GERMAN SINGING SOCIETY will entertain those present with some of their best vocal performances.
 Admission 1st. Ladies free. oct23-3t

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of Wisconsin.

Is the best Company for Western men to insure in, because it is made up of, and managed by, western men, and in this having its risks all reside in this, the healthiest portion of the Union, it is believed that its rate of mortality will be lower than that of Eastern Companies, in fact it has been in the past. The Company is now in its fifth year of business, and has proven an entire success, having issued over four thousand policies and accumulated two hundred thousand dollars, reserved premiums. It started without guarantee capital, and experience has proven that none was necessary.

The business of the Company is conducted upon the same general basis as that of the most successful Eastern Companies, with the advantage of having the experience of the other once, as its guide.

There are now a large number of members of the Company in St. Paul and vicinity, among whom are some of our best business men.

NORTH-WESTERN AGENCY,
 Third Street, St. Paul.
 O. CURTIS, Manager.

Either of the above gentlemen will at all times be glad to give information to members or others, in regard to this very successful western institution, and will also assist in making up applications for insurance therein.

The following notice, copied from the New York Insurance Monitor, as good authority as there is, speaks well:

"The trustees of this prosperous Company have issued to policyholders their customary annual report. It is dated at Milwaukee, the 10th of June, and is, in all respects, a satisfactory and cheering document. The business of the Company has increased within the year, and would have been still more largely augmented but for the depressing influence of the panic of last summer, in Wisconsin. It appears, however, that the Company has extended its field of operations, having their agents canvassed its own State, and established agents in Iowa, Minnesota, and Wisconsin. As a preliminary to entering upon the business of the State, it submitted its affairs to the inspection of Mr. Edgar Wright, Esq., a resident of the State, and a member of the Wisconsin Insurance Commission. This fact furnishes a strong testimony to the worth of the Company, since Mr. Wright is at once a very able and very severe judge of the condition of insurance corporations. Within the past year the Company's losses, though considerable, have not equaled the amount estimated in the tables of mortality, upon which the premiums are based. Its assets, on the other hand, have been increased 33 per cent, by an addition of $1,093,231, and a considerable increase is recorded in the per cent of assets to compensated liabilities. The total assets of the Company, now amount to $1,027,275. Within the past year the sum of $109,553.48 has been received in premiums and interest, from which the sum of $18,257.37 is to be deducted for disbursements, and the sum of $91,296.11 is to be added for accrued interest and deferred premiums. Thus we get the above amount of total assets, which, as appears by this report, is safely and profitably invested. We are glad to record such prosperity. This corporation was started with capital—which was the trustees' 'in Life Insurance Companies is only a continual expense to policyholders'—yet its accumulations now reach the sum of $1,027,275.37, and it has now in force 2,355 policies insuring $1,075,130. May it continue to flourish, growing with the growth, and strengthening with the strength of the great American Republic!"

LOCAL NOTICES.
EVERYBODY GOES FOR IT.—We do not hear of any body in these parts who does not go for De Land's Chemical Salts. No matter who we may go for in politics, all our householders agree that it is the thing to make light blent. Its entire freedom from deleterious matter should commend it.

Steamboat and River News.
 The river is reported as still rising, but as so slow and undecided a rate that it does not inspire any one with hopes of "big boats." The Minnesota is on a stand, with a foot above low water mark.

The cutter arrived at noon, and soon left for below again.

The Ariel came down from Carver, with a large load of produce. Clerk Holmes is on sick leave, and we could not get a manifest.

The Frank Sigel came in with some freight from the City and Danville packets.

The Jeannette Roberts left at six o'clock for night to connect at Prescott with the Prairie du Chien and Danville packets.

TO THE TRADE OF THE NORTHWEST.
Having purchased the old stand of R. Gallaway and introduced it up for
A LIVE STORE,
And having secured some of the best workmen of the country, I now offer
THE LATEST AND MOST DESIRABLE PATTERNS OF SHOES, AND A COMPLETE ASSORTMENT OF TIN WARE.
To the trade, which will be sold as near Chicago and Milwaukee prices, as the extra expense of laying down in this market will allow. I am now prepared to fill all orders for
Tin Ware, Stove Pipe, &c.
And taking into consideration the high prices of tinware so well as the trouble of obtaining labor, I think I can make sufficient inducements to the trade.
An examination of costs, prices, &c., is solicited.
P. P. STEWARD'S CELEBRATED SUMMER AND WINTER COOKING STOVE,
Which has no equal. I would invite the attention of all who wish to purchase a first-class Stove, to examine my stock.
All kinds of Jobbing and Custom Work made to order.
Call at the old stand of R. Gallaway, opposite the corner of 3d and Nicol's, Dean & Co., Third-st. St. Paul, Minn.

Persons unacquainted with the Melodeon and its history, will bear in mind that we are the pioneers and leading manufacturers, not only in the United States, but in the world. We commenced the manufacture of Melodeons in the fall of the year 1842, and since that time have finished an sold TWENTY-SEVEN THOUSAND THESE instruments in every part of the United States and Canada, but also in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America and the West Indies, and we feel ourselves fully justified in claiming the highest testimonials of the high estimation in which we are held.

AT ALL INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITIONS THEY HAVE INvariably BEEN AWARDED THE HIGHEST PREMIUM WHENEVER EXHIBITED IN COMPETITION WITH OTHERS.

We shall take pleasure in forwarding by mail (at our own expense) our Illustrated Catalogue, in which every instrument we manufacture is fully described and illustrated by elegant engravings.

Our Melodeons are manufactured either solely by or under any part of the United States, and are warranted to be perfect in every respect, and should any repairs be necessary before the expiration of five years from date of sale, we will ourselves repair and willing to make the same free of charge, provided the injury is not caused by neglect or abuse.

Agents for the sale of our Melodeons may be found at all the principal towns of the United States and Canada.

THE CITY.

The Copperhead Meeting "Phar-

day Night.

HEAVY TALK TO A SMALL AUDIENCE.

Posters about town on Thursday announced to the "uninformed" that "Hon. Wm. M. McCarthy, late of Indiana," and John B. Brislin would speak at Ingersoll's Hall on that evening. A band was duly secured who commenced at early candle lighting to summon the Copperheads together. Time passed on but the crowd didn't come. The band took position on the platform and sent forth a volume of enticing music without success. They accordingly rested from their fruitless labors when some of the head Copperheads, dissatisfied with the small number hovering about the store in the back part of the hall, went up and ordered a new music. The band, with commendable rapidity, and with only occasional intervals to take breath, until it became questionable whether the programme was not a good concert instead of a poor Copperhead meeting.

At eight o'clock, with a hall considerably less than half full, the meeting was called to order, and "Hon. W. M. McCarthy, late of Indiana," introduced to the audience, who proceeded to "speak his piece." It was substantially the same piece that he spoke before the Democratic club last summer, which was reported at that time, and it is accordingly unnecessary to repeat it. He denominated the President a "chartered libertine," declared himself in favor of dissolution of the Union rather than submit to the Administration, denounced the Robertson resolutions, etc., etc.

The next speaker was John B. Brislin, candidate for the State Senate in the 21st district. Mr. Brislin was in somewhat better health than when he made his celebrated stumping tour up the Minnesota, and was consequently able to mount the rostrum in tolerable steady style. His speech was mainly a discussion of national affairs in a pettifoggish style, during which he rehearsed the state of about Secretary Seward's "little hell," and falsified the record concerning the vote on the Crittenden compromise measure. He was for the Democratic party, and if they couldn't save the Union in their own peculiar way, why then—was for the Democratic party.

The closing portion of his speech was a touching allusion to Ramsey county and Minnesota politics, during which he stated that he (Brislin) was too degraded to be mentioned in a respectable community, and consequently he did not include himself when speaking of the ticket. The Democrats on the Union ticket were soundly denounced, and the declaration made recently that they (the Copperheads) had snuffed out their opponent on the Levee, was unrefuted. An investigation into the matter resulted in finding suspicion on Mr. Garrett, and he was arrested as above stated. His hearing before the Police Court has not yet taken place, but will in a day or two if the matter is not compromised in the meantime. Mr. Garrett is at present confined in the county jail. He is a young man, not over 26 or 28 probably, and has always been in receipt of a good salary, but a live for "fast living" has brought him where it has thousands, to dishonor and trouble.

THE PERLS OF FAST LIVING.—Robert H. Garrett, lately and for a long time past, a "runner" employed by the Agent of the Prairie du Chien Railroad, at the office of that company on the Levee, was arrested on Thursday evening, charged with embezzling tickets to the amount of several hundred dollars. For some time past the Agent here has occasionally received notice that the Saint Paul coupons taken up on the road did not agree with, but over-run the sales of said coupons reported to the company by him. An investigation into the matter resulted in finding suspicion on Mr. Garrett, and he was arrested as above stated. His hearing before the Police Court has not yet taken place, but will in a day or two if the matter is not compromised in the meantime. Mr. Garrett is at present confined in the county jail. He is a young man, not over 26 or 28 probably, and has always been in receipt of a good salary, but a live for "fast living" has brought him where it has thousands, to dishonor and trouble.

CONSOLIDATION OF THE TWO PUBLIC LIBRARIES.—Measures are on foot to consolidate the Mercantile Library and the Library of the Young Men's Christian Association. Committees of conference have been appointed by each Society, and a schedule of the plan has been agreed on, but not yet adopted by both Associations. The terms are as follows:

1. A new joint stock Association shall be formed, to be known as the Saint Paul Library Association. Shares $25.
2. The two present Associations shall donate to it all their books and collections.
3. Membership tickets shall be issued entitling the holder to draw books but not to vote, for $1.00 (variously fixed at from $2 to $5).

Such are some of the features of the plan. It meets with considerable opposition, and may not be adopted, matters which shall be fixed up in. If it should be, however, it will give our city one excellent library instead of two small and imperfectly managed ones.

FIRE.—Yesterday morning about half past one o'clock a fire broke out in a large frame building known as the Luxembuger Hotel, situated on Franklin street, between Fourth and Fifth, and in a short time entirely consumed it. We are unable to state how the fire originated. It was discovered by a couple of gentlemen who were passing by, and who aroused the inmates of the house, a German family, in time for them to barely escape. The hotel proper was unoccupied, having been vacated a day or two before, but a wing of it was occupied as above stated. The building belonged to Mr. Bettengen, and was insured for $1,500, being about two-thirds of its value. It was an old building, and had been used several years.

The fire Department was promptly on hand, and did good execution, having a plentiful supply of water.

FORWARDING OF FREIGHT.—Captain Davidson is using all the energy for which he is noted, in getting up the freight brought to La Crosse for his line. The report that there are hundreds of tons lying in the Depot at La Crosse is incorrect. It is all cleared up every trip, and not allowed to accumulate there. Still there is a great deal of impatience, and some fears that the goods will be delayed there. Capt. Davidson has sent us a note, in which he says:

"Please say to the merchants of St. Paul, and other points, that no goods are allowed to lay at La Crosse. We have been bringing them up as fast as they arrive, and shall continue to do so. This may save me answering 'reds of inquiries every day."

ANY TIME TO WAR NEWS.—That Prof. Bernhardt has received splendid assortment of his Futurist and Parabolic Glass from us who have not been to see soon or they will be too late.

THEFT.—On Thursday night, about $150 worth of robes was stolen from the stable of Fenner & Crumley, on the corner of South and Fort street. There were seven half-bred and two white robes. The theft was a bold one, as two persons sleep in the stable every night. Entrance was gained through a door in the rear.

It is a little singular—we were going to say, but it is not, when we remember to what kind of persons the peace and safety of the city is committed at night—that a person could walk through the streets with back load of furs, and get away unnoticed and undetected.

AWARD OF CONTRACT.—The bids for the transportation of twenty-three tons of consumable stores from Fort Hildago to Fort Thompson, at the Sioux and Winnebago agencies on the Missouri River, were opened at the office of Capt. E. H. Carling on Thursday afternoon. There were only two bids handed in, as follows:

G. W. Piper, of St. Peter, 8 cts. per lb.

E. T. Weber, of St. Paul, 9 cts. per lb.

The contract was awarded to Mr. Piper. The whole compensation will amount to $3,680.00.

FREE CONCERT.—Geo. Benz gives a free concert to-night by the Great Western Band. He has just opened a new stock of Wines and Liquors, including some rare varieties. His splendid new counter is the finest one in the city. It was designed by A. F. Knight, built by Ferd. Hans, and the ornamental carving, which is very rich, done by Peter Winnen. It is worth a visit to see what fine workmanship our St. Paul artists get up.

NO BIDS.—Twelve o'clock, M., yesterday was the time for awarding the contract for feeding and lodging certain persons, no one having bid, but from the advertisement of the Prison Marshal, we suspect it was "no bids." There were no bids put in, however, and some other arrangements will doubtless be made for substituting the contracts.

DISTRICT COURT.—Second Judicial District.—Before Judge E. C. Palmer.—Fifth day.

The jury in the case of Grant & Bailey vs. Galloway, returned a verdict for $231.43 damages.

The case of Barney vs. Wolloughby (impounded with Saml. Powers) was commenced, and finished. It will be given to the jury this morning.

The members of Hope Engine Company No. 1 beg to return their thanks to Mrs. Geo. Edgerton, for her kindness in furnishing refreshments at the fire at the Luxemburg Hotel.

Those who want some choice game, poultry, etc., for dinner to-morrow, should call at Delaney's on Fort street. He has just received a lot, fresh and nice.

MASONIC.—There will be a Special Communication of Ancient Landmark Lodge F. A. M., this evening at 8 o'clock. Work in the Third Degree. WM. S. COMBS, Secretary.

DOMESTIC ECONOMY.—No housekeeper or cook is fully prepared to enter successfully upon her culinary duties without having the Chemical Solvent on hand. It relieves the mind of much of the care and anxiety experienced by a skillful cook. For sale by most merchants and grocers. Call for the genuine in red paper, and beware of the counterfeit put up in green.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of Wisconsin.

Is the best Company for Western men to insure in, because it is made up of, and managed by western men, and in thus having its risks all reside in this, the healthiest portion of the Union, it is believed that its rate of mortality will be lower than that of Eastern Companies, in fact it has been in the past.

The Company is now in its fifth year of business, and has proven an entire success, having issued over four thousand policies and accumulated two hundred thousand dollars, reserve premiums. It started without guarantee capital, and experience has proven that none was necessary.

The business of the Company is conducted upon the same general basis as that of the most successful Eastern Companies, with the advantage of having the experience of the older ones, as its guide.

There are now a large number of members of the Company in St. Paul and vicinity, among whom are some of our best business men.

NORTH-WESTERN AGENCY,

O. CURTIS,.....Manager.
S. P. SNYDER, Agent, Minneapolis.

Either of the above gentlemen will at all times be happy to give information to members or others, in regard to this very successful western institution, and will also assist in making up applications for insurance there.

The following notice, copied from the New York Insurance Monitor, as good authority as there is, speaks well:

"The trustees of this prosperous Company have issued to policy-holders their customary annual report. It is dated at Milwaukee, the 10th of June, and is, in all respects, a satisfactory and cheering one. The business of the Company has increased within the year, and would have been still more largely augmented but for the depressing influence of the late summer, in Wisconsin. It appears, however, that the Company has extended its field of operations, having thoroughly canvassed its own State, and established agents in Iowa, Minnesota, and Massachusetts. As a preliminary to entering upon the last named State, it submitted its affairs to the inspection of Mr. Elmer Wright, judge of the Supreme Court, who has since issued a certificate. This fact furnishes a strong testimonial to the worth of the Company, since Mr. Wright is at once a very able and very severe judge of the condition of insurance corporations. Within the past year, the Company's losses, though considerable, have not equaled the amount estimated in the tables of mortality, upon which the premiums are based. Its assets, on the other hand, have been increased 50 per cent., by an addition of $24,000.33, and a considerable increase is recorded in the percentage of assets to computed liabilities. The total assets of the company, now amount to $102,257.87. Within the past year the sum of $102,257.87 has been received in premiums and interest, from which the sum of $18,987.15 is to be deducted for disbursements, and to which the sum of $5,993.17 is to be added for accrued interest and deferred premiums. Thus we get the above amount of total assets, which, as appears by this report, is safely and profitably invested. We are glad to record such prosperity. This corporation was started with capital—which say the trustees, 'in Life Insurance Companies, is only a continual expense to policy-holders'—yet its accumulations now reach the sum of $102,257.87, and it has now in force 2,285 policies insuring $5,075,150. May it continue to flourish, growing with the growth, and strengthening with the strength of the great Western States!"

New York Market.

New York, Oct. 23—6 P. M.

Flour active and 50 to 60 better.

GRAIN—Wheat 25 to 30 better. Oats active and closed 35 to 40 better.

Chicago Market—October 20.

The market in gold opened a quiet and easier feeling in breadstuffs to-day, and prices for all descriptions ruled lower.

The demand for Wheat was light and mainly speculative. The market for No. 2, closing at $1.03 1/2 for No. 2, and $1.02 1/2 for No. 3.

Winter wheat was quiet at $1.10 for No. 1, and $1.05 for No. 2.

Flour continued dull for want of freight, and the market was unusually quiet for the day.

The inquiry for Corn was limited. Sales show a decline of 1/2 to 1/4 per bushel. At the close the market ruled steady and firm at 75 1/2 for No. 1 in store, and 75 for No. 2.

Oats quiet and 15 to 20 lower. Sales ranged from 25 to 30 per bushel.

How to Secure the Building of the Proposed Railroad from Saint Paul to Lake Superior.

Editors of the St. Paul Press:

I have read with much care the memorial signed by many of our business men, asking the city to appropriate $500,000 in bonds to assist in building a first-class Railroad direct from St. Paul to Lake Superior, and I would respectfully submit to the memorialists, as well as to those who have not signed this application, a few suggestions on this subject to our city.

The most important question that has been developed since the idea of building railroads was first suggested in our State.

Admit at once all the facts set forth in the memorial as to the necessity of this road to our city from the fatal consequences of permitting the first connection with Lake Superior in this portion of the North-west.

It is a good commencement and we hope it will be followed up by the rapid organization of other companies until the region is filled.

First Lieutenant Jasper N. Scott, of the First Regiment, has been promoted to be Captain of Company C.

Commissioner Jacob Martz has been promoted to First Lieutenant in Company C, vice Scott.

The Minnesota Boys at the Battle of Chickamauga.

We are permitted to take the following extracts from a private letter from an officer of the Second Minnesota, in relation to the battle of Chickamauga, which contains some particulars, in addition to those already received, which will be of interest to our readers:

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 7, 1863.

You have, of course, seen plenty of accounts of the "Battle of Chickamauga." I don't think to give one, as I think no man who was only part of the army, can give anything near a correct one. Farther than that of my own company, I know hardly anything personally of it. It did not fall back an inch from any position it took; and when it came off the field, on Sunday evening, it came in perfect order—each regiment and the battery in its proper place. The loss in the whole regiment, was killed and wounded, about eight hundred, out of eighteen hundred in action.

You may rest assured that the 2d did its whole duty. I did not see a single man who sought to slink. From the manner in which it fought, I know that the men in this company were not only brave, but they were also brave.

Important Order Concerning Volunteering.

We insert the order of the War Department below, after having made the revision, and alteration which supplementary orders relating to it and published since it was framed, have rendered necessary. Every soldier in the service should preserve it, no matter what his present opinion of re-enlisting may be.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 191.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, June 25, 1863.—In order to increase the ranks of the army, and to secure the prompt execution of the laws relating to the enlistment of volunteers, the following regulations are hereby prescribed:

I. All able-bodied men, between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, who have heretofore been enlisted, and have served for not less than nine months, and can pass the muster of the War Department, may be enlisted under this order, as veteran volunteers, in the service of the United States, and may receive the bounty and premium of four hundred and two ($402) dollars, to be paid as follows:
